zwanger- schapmassage

The pregnancy massage is a gentle massage tailored to your specific needs and concerns. Our special table features a cutout for your belly and breasts, allowing you to comfortably lie on your “stomach.” This massage enhances circulation, providing more oxygen and nutrients for both you and your baby. It can be enjoyed from the 13th week of your pregnancy.

duo relax treatment

Enjoy a back wrap and back massage together. Essential oils are added to the volcanic clay and algae back wrap, customized to your needs. The back wrap is covered with foil to enhance the absorption of the active ingredients into the skin. While one person’s wrap is working, the other receives a massage, and vice versa.
